

Name _____ Parent Signature _____

Chapter 3: Lessons 2 & 3 Study Guide

Pirates! (pp. 82)

1. _____ - a wealthy English man from Barbados who became a pirate and stole ships and goods.
2. He became known as the "_____."
3. He met a pirate named _____, who stole from the settlers of Charles Town and took prisoners. _____ means to steal.
4. People of Charles Town were tired of the pirates and wanted them to pay for their _____. They won a battle and _____ Bonnet to teach other pirates a lesson.

Problems! (pp. 83-84)

5. The colony of Carolina continued to grow with two different centers of settlement - Charles Towne and Albemarle Sound. But these two areas were too _____, too _____, and too _____ to share one government.
6. In 1712, the Lords Proprietors divided the colony into two forming _____ and _____ Carolina with its own governor and assembly (a group of leaders and lawmakers).
7. The Lords Proprietors failed to help the colonists with _____, _____, and new _____. So, they wrote to the _____ and asked him to take over the colony.
8. The king agreed and South Carolina became a _____ colony and was ruled by a _____ chosen by England.
9. The settlers had to rebuild homes and churches in Charles Town after _____ and _____ destroyed them.
10. People had to _____ to build houses and needed space for planting crops.

Native Americans (pp. 86-89)

11. New settlers were forcing _____ off their land and hunting in the same places, which had been used for food, shelter, and clothing for thousands of years.
12. Some of the settlers would _____ the Native Americans and force them to act as _____ to find new lands or force them to work as _____.
13. Many settlers carried _____ which the Native Americans caught and caused them to die.
14. _____ wanted to teach Native Americans about Christianity because they did not understand their culture or beliefs.

Yemassee War (pp. 90)

15. Tired of being pushed off land, the Yemassee attacked homes near _____, which is in Beaufort. They fought to _____ their homeland. The Yemassee had many other tribes helping them fight, including the _____ and the _____.
16. The colonists needed help. They asked the _____ nation to help them. They agreed and soon the war was over and called a _____, which is an agreement between two or more groups of people.
17. By the end, more than _____ settlers had died and lost their homes. Many more Natives had died. The _____ moved to Florida

Cherokee War (pp. 91)

18. But the Cherokee did not side with the English for long. More and more settlers were building homes in the _____ on Cherokee land. The royal governor made promises to the Cherokee, but kept breaking them.
19. The Cherokee grew angry and began attacking groups of settlers. The settlers would take the Cherokee as _____. Both sides led terrible attacks.
20. The _____ of England sent troops to help the colonists and forced the Cherokee farther into the mountains. But attacks still continued.