What's Going On in K7?

Language Arts

- I can recognize, write and make the sound for letter Rr and Cc
- Sight Words: We are learning how to write and read “see” and “cat”. Please look for the words in books when you are reading at home.

Social Studies: Community Helpers

- We will learn about different jobs and the tools they use.

Math:

- I can count, recognize & write numbers from 0-9.

Important Reminders

Friday is our first show and tell. Since, we are learning about community helpers this week I would like each child to bring in something that represents their favorite community helper to share with the class. Possible items: hat, shirt, tool, picture. We will focus on police officers, firefighters, mail carriers, bus drivers, school nurse, cafeteria staff, and Mr. Major– our day porter. The jobs are endless, so please talk to your child and decide which community helper is their favorite and bring something to share on Friday. This is going to be exciting, they have been patiently waiting for the opportunity to have a show and tell!!!
