What's Going On in K7?Reading: Fiction Texts

- I can point to words in a text.
- I can read sight words: the

Social Studies: Maps

- I can make a map of a familiar place using simple shapes.
- I can use a map key to identify places on a map.
- I can identify north, south, east and west on a compass rose.
- Encourage your child to look for maps. If you find a map, bring it in or take a picture of it and send it in an email. The kids love finding maps and its great to see how we use them in our everyday life.
- We are sending some blank maps so you can create some at home.

Math: Ordinal Numbers

- I can identify objects in first-fifth position and identify the last object in a line.

Tech Time

I am adding two stickers to your child's B.E.E. Binder in the website section.

EPIC– is an online library. The students will have access in the classroom, but you have to pay a monthly fee to use it at home. Do not feel obligated to purchase the program.

Happy Numbers– is centered around our math standards and we have a classroom membership, so you can

Parent & Teacher Conferences

Can you believe the first quarter of the school year is coming to a close? I need to conference with every parent during the month of October to discuss your child's progress. During our conference we will discuss the report card, MAP results and set goals for the year. Please use the link to sign up for a conference.

Parent/Teacher Conference Sign Up If the two days and times are not convenient, email me and we can arrange a conference for a different day.
