We hope you have a wonderful time over Thanksgiving break and enjoy some extra time with family and friends. I'm sending home an activity you may want to work on with your child. It's not mandatory. Many of the children love sharing what they did over the holiday, but they have difficulty remembering, so I'm sending a sheet with spaces for picture and writing. Be on the look out for words with "th." Look for examples in magazines, cut them out and make a collage. This is a difficult sound to make.
